Visitor – Release and Waiver of Claims

I acknowledge that I have requested permission for my son/daughter _____ (print name) to visit / tour the manufacturing facility of McLanahan Corporation located in Hollidaysburg, PA and have been advised of the inherent personal risks and dangers.

I am fully aware of all risks involved and acknowledge that McLanahan Corporation will not authorize any tour in the absence of my signature of this release and waiver form.

Therefore, in consideration of the permission extended to me and my son/daughter by McLanahan Corporation through its officers and agents and in acknowledgement of the risks involved, I do hereby for myself, my heirs, my son/daughter, my personal representatives or my successors in interest release and forever discharge McLanahan Corporation and all of its officers, agents and employees acting officially or otherwise from all claims, demands, actions or cause of action on account of my death, illness or injury which may occur from negligent, reckless or willful act of omission or commission or any other cause during my visit / tour.

I have signed this release with the intention of being legally bound hereby and further with the intention of legally binding any Corporation, business, partnership or other entity for which I am acting as agent or employee during the course of my visit / tour.

I further understand that my son/daughter must wear Personal Protective Equipment (hard hat, safety glasses, and hearing protection ear plugs) at all times while in manufacturing areas as prescribed and provided by McLanahan Corporation.

Additionally, I understand and my son/daughter will comply with the following items regarding attire for the visit:

- Long pants must be worn of a type similar to blue jeans
- A long sleeve shirt/sweatshirt buttoned, or otherwise gathered, at the wrist must be worn
 - Neither the shirt nor pant may be loose-fitting.
- Athletic shoes (sneakers), open-toed shoes, high heels, and other such shoes cannot be worn. All shoes must be leather and completely cover the foot (from heel to toe) and have non-athletic soles.
